Kempsville DeMolay

On April 16th, a group of young men from Kempsville DeMolay traveled to Shriners Children's Philadelphia. They spent the day visiting the Liberty Bell and eating cheesesteaks at Dalessandro's located in the Roxborough neighborhood. On April 17th, the young men ate breakfast with the Board of Directors and were given a private tour of the Hospital. Following the tour, Brady Shrieves, MJ Shrieves, Mark Spruill & Finn Holderman presented a check to the Board of Directors for $2,172.00 for the Scoliosis Unit. The young men raised this money during MJ Shrieves term as Master Counselor. After the check presentation, Brady Shrieves gave an amazing testimony to the Board of Directors of his experiences as a Shriner Patient.

Please remember to support our Masonic Youth. Our local DeMolay, Jobes Daughters and Rainbow Girls are very active and involved in our community. They would love to have your Clubs or Units attend some of their meetings. Please reach out to me if you want to help support our youth or have any questions.

Fraternally,

Mark Holderman
Youth Coordinator 2025
